- (a) use any Confidential Information disclosed to it by the other Party only in connection with the Permitted Purpose and not for any other reason;
- (b) hold the Confidential Information disclosed to it by the other Party in absolute confidence and secrecy, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the highest ethical and international business practices;
- (c) not in any manner, in whole or in part, copy, reproduce, disseminate, disclose, or cause or permit the disclosure of any Confidential Information except:
 - (i) to any of its Representatives, who have, on account of the Permitted Purpose, a clear and strict need to have access to the Confidential Information;
 - (ii) with the prior written consent of the other Party; and / or

- (iii) where the Confidential Information is required to be disclosed under any applicable Laws, including the rules of any applicable listing authority or stock exchange on which the Party's shares are listed;
 - (d) ensure that the Representatives are aware that they are obliged to treat any Confidential Information received by them or disclosed to them in the same manner as if they were a party to this Agreement;
 - (e) notify the other Party immediately if it suspects, or become aware of, any unauthorized use, storage, copying or disclosure of the Confidential Information; and
 - (f) do anything reasonably required by the other Party to prevent or stop a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement or an infringement or threatened infringement of the other Party's right arising out of this Agreement by any person, whether by court proceedings or otherwise.
- 2.2 If the Party must make a disclosure referred to in Clauses 2.1(c)(i) or 2.1(c)(ii), then such disclosure shall be limited in nature such that it shall strictly only be on a "need to know" basis and no other.
- 2.3 If a Party must make a disclosure referred to in Clause 2.1(c)(iii):
- (a) that Party must take all lawful measures available to restrict such disclosure;
 - (b) that Party must disclose only the minimum Confidential Information required, in order to comply with any applicable Laws; and
 - (c) before making such disclosure, the Party making the disclosure must:
 - (i) give the other Party reasonable notice of the full circumstances of the required disclosure and the Confidential Information which it proposes to disclose; and
 - (ii) consult with the other Party as to the form and the extent of the proposed disclosure.
- 2.4 Each party agrees and covenants with the other Party that it shall not disclose, either directly or indirectly, any Confidential Information to any Media Outlet without the prior written consent of the other Party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).
- 2.5 Where requested by the other Party, each Party shall, and shall procure that all persons to whom it has disclosed Confidential Information shall, at the its own expense, within seven (7) days of receipt of a written demand from the other Party:

- (a) destroy and / or return to the other Party (as may be requested in the circumstances by the other Party) the Confidential Information, together with all notes or memoranda of conversations relating to the Confidential Information and any documents containing analyses, studies, compilation and other materials derived from the Confidential Information; and
- (b) provide a certificate signed by its director or authorised officer confirming compliance with the obligations contained in this Clause 2.5.

3 Continuing Obligations

3.1 This Agreement shall commence on the date of execution hereof and shall be valid for a period of [xxx (xxx) months] and, for the avoidance of doubt, the obligations of both Parties, which are set out in this Agreement, shall survive notwithstanding:

- (a) the fact that any process (including any pre-qualification process, request for proposal process or tender process) to which the Permitted Purpose relates has concluded;
- (b) the expiry or termination of this Agreement (for whatever reason); and / or
- (c) any request received by any Party pursuant to Clause 2.5.

3.2 The validity of any Information, whether reduced in writing or otherwise, obtained from or used in connection with the Permitted Purpose shall be for a period of two (2) years only, and upon expiry of such validity period, all Information contained therein shall be obsolete.

4 Confidential Information Provided by Sarawak Energy

4.1 Each Party acknowledges and agrees that:

- (a) all Confidential Information will be provided to the other Party without any express or implied representations or warranties by the other Party as to its completeness, correctness and / or accuracy;
- (b) the other Party has no liability whatsoever to the Party as a result of the use of the Confidential Information; and
- (c) any reliance placed by the Party on the Confidential Information provided by the other Party is to be at the risk of the Party.

Each Party agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the other Party against all actions, claims, suits, liability, damages, costs, charges and expenses in connection with, or arising out of any:

- (a) breach of a Party's obligations under this Agreement;
- (b) failure by a Party to ensure compliance by any employee, third party or person with the terms of this Agreement; and / or
- (c) infringement of the other Party's intellectual property rights in respect of the Confidential Information., provided that the indemnified Party has taken all reasonable, necessary measures to mitigate any liability, damages, costs, charges and expenses that may be suffered or incurred or arisen out of any breach, failure or infringement under this Clause 6 (as the case may be).

7 Assignment

Neither Party may assign, novate or otherwise transfer, in whole or in part, any of its rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other Party, which must not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

8 Remedies and Waiver

- 8.1 Each Party acknowledges and agrees that any breach of its obligations under this Agreement shall entitle the other Party to seek immediate relief, to the fullest extent permitted under any applicable Laws.
- 8.2 Each Party further acknowledges and agrees that any breach of its obligations under this Agreement may cause the other Party irreparable harm, loss, injury or damage (including damage to other Party's reputation), the extent of which may be impossible to ascertain and which cannot be fully compensated through the payment of monetary damages.
- 8.3 Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that the other Party may have under any applicable Laws, each Party acknowledges and agrees that the other Party may restrain, by an injunction or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct which is, would be or could reasonably be perceived to be in breach of this Agreement.
- 8.4 Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as prohibiting either Party from pursuing any other remedies which may be available to it, under or pursuant to any applicable Laws, in addition to those specific remedies which are set out in this Agreement.
- 8.5 Failure by a Party to exercise or enforce, a delay by the other Party in exercising or enforcing, or the partial exercise or enforcement by a Party, a particular right, whether that right exists under this Agreement or otherwise at Law, shall not preclude, or operate as a waiver of:
 - (a) the exercise or enforcement; or
 - (b) further or future exercise or enforcement,of that right by that Party.
- 8.6 A waiver or consent given by either Party under this Agreement shall only be effective and binding if given or confirmed in writing.

9 General

- 9.1 This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of Malaysia, as applicable in Sarawak.
- 9.2 The Parties irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Sarawak for the resolution of any disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, which cannot otherwise be resolved or settled through amicable discussion between the Parties.
- 9.3 To the extent permitted by any applicable Laws, this Agreement:
- (a) embodies the entire understanding of the Parties, and constitutes the entire terms agreed by the Parties in relation to its subject matter; and
 - (b) supersedes all prior communications, negotiations and any prior agreement (written or oral) of the Parties.
- 9.4 A variation of this Agreement is valid only if it is in writing, is dated, expressly refers to this Agreement and is signed by duly authorised representatives of the Parties.
- 9.5 Each Party shall bear its own costs and expenses incurred in connection with the preparation and execution of this Agreement.
- 9.6 If any provision of this Agreement is or becomes illegal, invalid, unenforceable or void in any relevant jurisdiction, the legality, validity, enforceability and validity of the remainder of this Agreement will not be affected (unless incapable of being operable in the absence of such provision) and this Agreement will be read as if the part had been deleted in that jurisdiction only.
- 9.7 This Agreement may be entered into by the Parties in a number of counterparts, all of which shall, together, constitute the same instrument.
- 9.8 The language for all communications shall be English.
- 9.9 All correspondence, notices, requests for clarifications or other communications relating to this Agreement shall be in writing and sent by courier, personal delivery or by electronic means, with any such correspondence, notices, requests for clarifications or other communications to be deemed to have been effectively given, if:
